Kids participate in a prior Muddy Puddles event.

Mess Fest Returns July 30

The annual Muddy Puddles Mess Fest will be held July 30 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Kiwi Country Day Camp, 825 Union Valley Road, Mahopac.

In addition to the traditional puddle jumping, zip-lining, rock climbing and more, new activities planned for this year's event include a meet-and-greet with preschool celebrity Peppa Pig, as well as interactive inflatables and a chance to interact with the Hudson Valley Star Wars 501st Legion.

Tickets to the event are $34 and can be purchased at www.eventbrite.com. All proceeds benefit the Ty Louis Campbell Foundation for childhood cancer research.

The Muddy Puddles Project

is a celebration of children and childhood, and is a shift toward letting go of the everyday stress of being a grownup and finding the fun in all things messy. It was inspired by 5-year-old Ty Campbell, a little boy who absolutely loved Peppa Pig and dreamed of jumping in muddy puddles just like her.

After Ty lost his battle with cancer, his parents committed to finding ways to fund innovative research geared toward safer, more effective treatment of various childhood cancers. This event is the perfect vehicle to engage children in philanthropy because it encourages them to have fun while doing good.
